RESTFUL JAMES SHEPHERD.
I like a man like sunny Jim,
For nothing ever worries him.
You never hear him roar or rant
Or try to ride the elephant.
He cares not what the world may say,
But picks on his quiet way.
Nor needs the scolding of the rode:
"Innocuous denude."

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company opened their office in the lobby of the Central Hotel last Thursday morning. Miss Deliah D. Patterson of Louisville is in charge of the company's business here temporarily and Mr. B. E. Sullivan is resident manager and Clarke Busby is messenger boy.

The company has spent millions to establish its line and is the only rival of the Western Union.

See advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEDGER.

Pupils of Miss Rains in Recital

Quite a large and select audience attended the recital given last evening by the pupils composing Miss Jessie T. Rains' music class. The recital took place in the Sunday-school room of the Third Street M. E. Church which had been very tastefully arranged for the occasion.

The program rendered was of the very best order of music, and was well rendered by the young folk of the class, each showing that rare skill that comes by thoroughly competent training.

The class is indeed fortunate in having such a splendid teacher as Miss Rains, and she is to be congratulated on having such apt pupils. Miss Marie Curtis Rains, teacher in the kindergarten school of Cincinnati was present and sang two beautiful selections which added much to the attractiveness of the program.

It is to be much regretted that Miss Rains will not teach in Maysville next year as she and her mother, Mrs. Frances Rains, will spend the winter in Cincinnati. The loss of such excellent people from our city will be sorely felt in Church and social circles.

SIX GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Colored High School Class of 1912 Graduate Before a Large Crowd

Principal Humphrey Has Another Triumph

The Colored High School Commencement, Class of 1912, was held last night at Washington Opera-house before a large crowd.

The program as given in Monday's LEDGER was carried out without a mistake, and the enthusiasm of the audience was evidence that the affair was a success and up to the standard of popular expectation and approval.

Following were the six graduates who were presented with Diplomas by Mr. J. Harry Richardson.

Mary E. Folter, Courtenay C. Williams
Elizabeth H. Yates, James Long,
Beatrice Jackson, Gilbert Duncan.

Seldom have we seen such an audience of colored people present at a similar occasion, the opera-house being completely packed. There were about 100 white people present, also, chief of whom were Supt. and Mrs. J. W. Braden.

Principal Humphrey, the chief of the Maysville Colored High School, scored another educational triumph last evening. He was master of ceremonies and the public gives him the full credit due him for his devotion to school duty and his patience and progressive intelligence displayed in the vast work of conducting the Colored Schools of Maysville.

Mr. Humphrey works harmoniously under the eyes of Superintendent Braden and the City Board of Education and his efforts—as a leading colored educator speak in eloquent terms of duties splendidly performed.

The Maysville Colored Schools compare favorably with any colored schools in the world, and are surpassed by few if any.

As to last night's program, every one of the graduates acquitted themselves well and the entire program was highly enjoyable.

The theme of the evening was the class address of Rev. J. S. Baily, Superintendent Maysville Conference M. E. Church. His subject was: "Trained Leadership." His address was timely, for "trained leadership" is the talent that reaps the honors and the big salaries.

Space only forbids us from giving in full further report of Rev. Baily's address. It was earnest and eloquent and would bear printing in full.

Thus the curtain went down on another well spent season of education.

Tomorrow is Athletic day at ball park. Fine program.

Mr. H. Yates and sister of Kansas City passed through the city yesterday on route to Flemingsburg, where they will visit relatives and friends.

1909 BURLEY POOL

Only 250 Hogheads in Mason County Out of 6,000 Pooled

There are now only 250 hogheads of the 1909 Burley pool in storage in Mason county out of a total of 6,000 hogheads pooled.

This tobacco has nearly all been shipped to the Cincinnati and Louisville market for sale and all is to be disposed of by July 1st, as the pool will be closed after that and the money divided among the poolers.

The total dividends will not reach 60c on the dollar.

To Continue Business

We have been successful in securing a renewal of our lease on the meat store in the Caspary Building, and contrary to our former announcements to the public, will be in the meat business at the same old stand for the next five years. We certainly appreciate the business of our old patrons and take this method of thanking them for their past patronage and asking them for a continuance of their business in the future. Our business will be continued along the same lines that have made our house famous, and the same high-class goods will be served you in the future as have been served you in the past.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself; free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kick" too long—it's the short, quick fellows that count—and cut.

The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

FUNNY BUSINESS.

Editor Ledger: What funny things one sees when he hasn't got a gun—or when he reads the proceedings of the Maysville Business Men's Club.

What right, pray, had a few members, even a "quorum," to get together, without notice to the paid membership of some hundred-and-odd, and to vote away the money belonging to the members—practically voting it to themselves, for it was ordered (turned over) to the Maysville Amusement Company, in which the chief movers are financially interested?

A prominent city official once declared that he "would not take the taxpayers' money to give to a damned corporation," and yet here is a case where one or more "officials" took money subscribed for a particular purpose and gave it to an undemanded corporation!

What would be thought of the officers of a railroad company who would vote to themselves the contents of the treasury without the consent of the stockholders?

Wouldn't they be charged with embezzlement?

A VICTIM.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD T. FT.

The Financial News estimates that the L. & N. "will earn 18 per cent on its $60,000,000 of stock during the current fiscal year." A neat little bit of interest. But it also shows that freight is moving in Kentucky.—Owensboro Messenger.

There are over two million pensioners in this country now. There will be five millions of them by the time a pension roll is provided for every kind and class of Government employes. Then only one thing will remain to be done—to pension everybody who hasn't saved a dollar, as Lloyd-George and the other British social reformers have undertaken to do. France and Germany are rapidly becoming nations of pensioners. There was a time when the idea of putting everybody's hand into the public treasury would not have received much toleration in the United States of America. But we have been going fast and far in the other direction during the past twenty years.—Hartford Times.

We are at outs with the Methodist General Conference says the Ohio State Journal. They refused to restore the name of "presiding elder," which they had dropped for "district superintendent." That was a great mistake. One of the proudest recollections of our life was when the presiding elders stopped at our house, ate stewed chicken and hot biscuit and led in family prayer. We would give $1,000 to be back with those old fellows again. They were saints, all of them, and the benediction they left on the household remained for many days. In fact, we sometimes think we feel it yet. And then to see them turn their backs on "presiding elder." No wonder so many hearts, filled with sweet memories, protested.

Prosecution of offenders against Federal laws was given a tremendous impetus by the Supreme Court of the United States in its holding that conspiracy to violate Federal laws could be punished in any state where an overt act was done to further that conspiracy.

Justice McKenna laid down the doctrine, which was supported by Chief Justice White and Justices Day, Vandevanter and Pitney, Justice Holmes dissented and with him were Justices Lurton, Hughes and Lamar. Justice Lamar declared that trial should be only where the conspiracy was entered into.

As an immediate result of the decision reached, Henry A. Hyde and Jost H. Schneider, of California, were held guilty of "land fraud" conspiracy as found by trial in the District of Columbia. Hyde and Schneider, with John A. Benson and Henry P. Dimond, were indicted in 1904. It was alleged they conspired to get title to large areas of school lands and exchange it under the law of 1897. It was alleged they bribed employes of the General Land Office at Washington to expedite the change and get certain information.

The wicked Pensacola Journal thinks the modern woman's attire is all right "as far as goes."

Lorimer, Stephenson and Senator Simon are yet directing in a measure the destinies of this nation—and they paid the price.

Teddy asked for 250 convention tickets. New declined. The committee on applause will have to pre-empt an adjoining roof.

Incidentally, our own opinion is that Roosevelt resembles P. T. Barnum much more closely than he does Lincoln.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

A woman has been appointed to a government job of destroying paper currency. Woman's ability to get rid of the stuff is universally recognized.

Dr. Lyman Abbot testifies he has frequently seen Roosevelt drink six glasses of milk at a meal. The Colonel talks like he is full of buttermilk.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Film pictures of the inside of the crater of Vesuvius have been secured. After that photographers may tackle without dismay the inside of that Chicago convention hall. Science gradually conquers all things.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"If we have the recall of judges and of judicial opinions we will make cowards of the judges. It is a good thing for this country that we have at this time as President a man who has himself been a judge and who will stand by the principles of the constitution."—Former Senator Spooner.

Rowan county should be proud of its distinguished scholar, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stuart, President of the Kentucky Educational Association. Altho one of the smallest mountain counties of the state, it can boast of an excellent school system, under the guidance of Mrs. Stuart, who has been County Superintendent for years.—Winchester Democrat.

The split in the Republican party has assumed the proportions of a yawning chasm.—Sharpsburg World.

Yes, everybody's yawning and getting tired of Taft bagging all the votes and of Teddy ranting around like a wild man. By the way, wouldn't Roosevelt be a bird in the White House? A lunatic asylum would be the proper place for him.

And speaking of that "yawning chasm," did you notice that the Republican National Committee is now bridging that so-called chasm?

Democrats of prominence in various parts of the country are saying that the biggest bone of contention at Baltimore will no doubt be over the platform to be adopted by the party. In fact a pronounced struggle is predicted over this document. As the time draws nearer for the convention the friends of Colonel Bryan say they feel more certain that he will be nominated, while his opponents in his own party say that to receive the nomination he would have to assure the leaders of a harmonious convention, a platform that would entirely offset the Republican platform and everything else that would demonstrate to the majority of the delegates that he could win an election.

Washington Star.
Quartermaster General Edwin A. Taylor, of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, told at a Memorial day banquet in Memphis this story:
"A Southerner sat in the lobby of a New York hotel discussing certain campaigns with a Northerner.
"Well," the Northerner ended with a laugh, "well, we licked you, anyhow."
"Yes, you did," the Southerner admitted "but, by crimos, its plain, from the also of your pension list, that before we g... we crippled every blessed one of you!"

BOHUMIR KRYL.

BOHUMIR KRYL and his band will be one of the leading musical features of the forthcoming Chautauqua program. Kryl, according to the Los Angeles Times, is beyond any question the greatest cornetist in the world, and the Cincinnati Enquirer speaks of him as a great cornetist and the head of a great band. He was working as a sculptor and as such had achieved no little fame, when he laid down the chisel and took up the cornet at the suggestion of no less a great personage than the world famous John Philip Sousa. As a sculptor one of his famous accomplishments was the preservation of the features of the author of "Ben-Hur" in marble. This was Kryl's last piece of sculpture, and his last. Since he began his career as a musician he has directed his band in nearly all the large cities of America. He comes to the Chautauqua direct from the Riverview exposition, Chicago.

Pains All Over!

"You are welcome," says Mrs. Nora Guffey, of Broken Arrow, Okla., "to use my letter in any way you want to, if it will induce some suffering woman to try Cardui. I had pains all over, and suffered with an abscess. Three physicians failed to relieve me. Since taking Cardui, I am in better health than ever before, and that means much to me, because I suffered many years with womanly troubles, of different kinds. What other treatments I tried, helped me for a few days only."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Gypsies Buy $1,000 Worth Ponies

Lexington Herald.

An organized band of about seventy-five gypsies left Lexington yesterday about noon after having spent the last two or three days in and around Lexington. The party carried wagons and they had about thirty horses. They were prosperous and seemed to have considerable money as a result of the sale of Mr. L. C. Price, proprietor of Pomoken Stud, the well known Shetland breeder, at auction. They bought from Major Price over $1,000 worth of ponies and Mr. Price stated they seemed to have plenty more money.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful—And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Marat—"Star Villain" of the French Revolution

A SLOVENLY unkempt little dwarf—scarce five feet tall—with bearded eyes peering forth from a blotched and pallid face. Such was Jean Paul Marat, ruler of France's destitutes at a day when France was a slaughter house.

The French Revolution was at its height. After throwing off the cruel bondage of royalty under which they had groaned for centuries, the French people beheaded their old tyrants, the aristocrats. Then, the thirst for blood being still unquenched, they fell to beheading each other. The "Reign of Terror" set in. First the revolutionists who believed in higher ideals and gentler methods were slain. Then the more rabid revolutionists divided into several parties or factions. And, whichever faction chanced at the moment to be uppermost executed members of the others. One leader after another arose to outdo his predecessors in deeds of violence, only to lose his own life and power to some still more murderous demagogue.

And the heart and soul of the Reign of Terror was Marat. He was a Swiss by birth and had at various times been a scientist, a literary man, a physician and—so says Carlyle—a humane doctor. When the revolution began he started a paper called "The Friend of the People." It was probably the most scurrilous, bloodthirsty sheet ever published.

The revolution at that time had not wholly thrown sanity aside. Marat's arrest was ordered. He escaped and fled to the lowest slums. There, hiding in the sewers and cellars, he spent his time making friends with the vile outcasts of the Paris underworld and in preaching to them his doctrine of wholesale murder. From time to time, as the revolution waxed more fierce, he would emerge from his hiding with new plans for deeds of violence. Each time the saner leaders denounced him. But, soon or late, they followed his advice. And thus the revolution grew daily into the Reign of Terror.

At last it became safe for Marat to come wholly out of seclusion and to proclaim aloud, by voice and by his newspaper, his ideas for the death of his fellowmen. The revolutionary leaders feared and hated him. They held him in contempt for his squalid filth and his shrieking clamor for blood. But they could no longer send him into hiding. For the worst element of the mob now ruled Paris. And the mob adored Marat. He grew in power and his most terrible orders were obeyed.

He framed a law by which 400,000 persons were arrested on suspicion of being false to the revolution. Hundreds more were guillotined at his command. He even gravely expressed a wish to believe an entire French army of 270,000 officers and men.

With Robespierre and Danton (both of whom later fell victims to the guillotine) he formed a triumvirate to govern the French people. For a time he was the ruling spirit in this combination. In vain did his opponents call him "sewer rat," and even less complimentary names. In vain did they plot for his downfall. By sheer force of evil he crushed all opposition. And the crazy mob slavishly followed his one virtue. By grafting, as did other revolutionary chiefs, he might have made millions of dollars. He died with just twenty-one cents.

Nature at last did what man could not, to shorten the career of this "star villain" of France's Scarlet Tragedy. Marat's health gave out. He suffered intolerable pain. The only relief he could get was to lie for hours in a tub of hot water. The great unwashed was actually forced to bathe!

It was while he was wrapped in a sheet in the steaming bathtub on the evening of July 13, 1793, that a young girl from the provinces called to see him. She said she had with her a list of traitors' names and began to read them to him. Marat listened greedily. At the end he croaked:

"They shall die! Every one of them!"

As he spoke, the girl—Charlotte Corday—stabbed him to the heart. She had hoped to free France from a tyrant. But she did more harm than good. In the first place, Marat had already been dying from disease, and at most could have had but a few weeks to live. In the second, she made the people regard a monster as a martyr. And, for months, the most atrocious cruelties were carried on, under the pretext that Marat would have wished them.

Instead of ending the Reign of Terror, Charlotte Corday had but increased its horrors. Here was a wasted crime.

RATHER MIXED UP

Case of Sam Wilson in re C. & O. a Philadelphia Lawyer Affair

Samuel Wilson, charged with breach of the peace, was arraigned before Judge John L. Whitaker yesterday afternoon. Wilson is the near-white colored man arrested on the night of June 7th, at the C. & O. Depot for creating a disturbance and commotion while a passenger on a C. & O. train at some point between Cincinnati and Augusta. The defendant was represented by Attorney John L. Chamberlain and the Commonwealth by City Attorney W. H. he defense pleaded want of jurisdiction, offense was not committed in this county. The prosecution contended that it was continuous all along the line and that the case came within the purview of Judge Whitaker's Court. The court was not satisfied that such was the case however, and held up its decision until 10 o'clock this morning pending an investigation of the City Attorney as to the jurisdiction in the matter.

MARRIAGES

Mr. O. V. Malone, aged 21, and Miss Bertha L. Poole, aged 21, both of West Union, O., were married in the County Clerk's office yesterday morning, Judge W. H. Rice officiating.

News of The Courts

POLICE COURT
Omer Davenport, charged with stealing a gold watch from Frank Bell while the latter was in an intoxicated condition and asleep in the rear of a Market street saloon Saturday afternoon last, had a hearing in the matter. The court was of the opinion that the evidence adduced was sufficient to hold him over in the sum of $200 for appearance at the next term of Circuit Court, and in default he was committed to jail. Davenport is a step-son of Rev. Robert White of Maysville. All the parties are colored.

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c, in stamps—1,000 pages in splendidly clear binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

Mrs. ZUBERT AND BARN.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZUBERT, of 223 N. Houston Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the start made me to my house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursed three children while whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent of winter before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butterball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

Tribute to Mrs. Sally J. Cox

Wednesday's Lexington Herald.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Whitaker, in Maysville, in the early morning of June 10th, Sallie Grant Jackson, wife of Thornton L. Cox, deceased, peacefully passed to rest, having witnessed the passing of nearly 50 eventful years. She was the daughter of Samuel Grant Jackson and Anne Shirley Mason, and both on the paternal and maternal side traced her ancestry to the early settlers of Kentucky, being related to the Boone, Bryans and Flenbergs. Her father amassed a considerable fortune at the Red River iron works. Later he removed to Lexington and thence to Frankfort. In his day he was one of the leading financiers of the state.

Mrs. Cox's sisters were Mrs. John B. Houston, wife of the distinguished lawyer, Mrs. Crittenden, wife of Thomas T. Crittenden, at one time Governor of Missouri. A sister who died in early womanhood was the late wife of Judge James H. Mulligan of this city. Another surviving sister is Mrs. John M. Nickols of Kansas City. Two brothers also survive, Samuel J. Jackson of Kansas City and Lewis Jackson of Nicholasville. Her surviving children, besides Mrs. John L. Whitaker, at whose home she died, are Mrs. A. A. Wadsworth and Mrs. E. J. Thompson of New York and Thornton Cox of Chicago.

She will be laid to rest with her loved ones as she desired in the family lot in the Lexington Cemetery. The interment will take place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, and the pallbearers will be Judge J. D. Hunt, Leonard G. Cox, Lewis L. Jackson, William G. Irvine, Dr. P. H. Molloy and James Whitaker.

Our Colored Citizens.

The funeral of Mr. Ben Lee will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

MAYSVILLE WINS AGAIN

Swiped the Third Game From Lexington Yesterday, Score 12 to 2

Maysville 12, Lexington 2, is the way the returns read yesterday afternoon at the close of the game.

The contest had many interesting features, chief among which was the only two runs scored by Lexington, when in the sixth a long liner struck fair in right field, but rolled 40 feet out of the foul line, going under the guard fence, and allowing two men to trot home.

The Rivermen were fine at batting and fielding and seemed strong enough to down big league teams.

Snyder did a fine piece of fielding in the sixth, pulling down Woodstock's long drive.

The Colts were in poor form, especially their pitching staff, three pitchers being used.

Vallandigham had his hand badly hurt during the game and had to stop playing. He bled the ball, and as he ran to first, Grover hit him on the back of the head, fracturing two small bones.

The score:
Lexington.....0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2
Maysville.....1 0 2 3 3 0 0 x—12
Batteries—Vallandigham, Taft, Badger and Vandendigham; Grover and Woodruff.
Six hits, six runs off Vallandigham in four innings; two hits, two runs off Badger in three off two thirds innings; six hits, four runs off Taft in one and one third innings. Time—2:05. Umpire—Kelly.

FOR SALE

We have for sale one of the most complete and fresh stocks of merchandise in the county, consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Shoes, Rubber Boots, Overalls, Quasware, etc. In fact everything carried in an up-to-date store. This stock is new throughout, nothing in the store over two years old. Business is thoroughly prosperous. This is not a case of selling out because you have rusted out, but a sore enough live business and a fine money maker. Sales will run better than $15,000 annually. Owner's reason for selling is poor health. We are not simply offering this business for sale but are going to sell it. If you are interested see us at once for full particulars. We will make the price and terms to suit you.
